5.1 Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information:-

- i) All information shall be handled within the organization on a need to know basis and insider shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of the duties or discharge of the legal obligations.
- ii) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to BSL or its securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purpose, performance of the duties or discharge of legal obligation.
- iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would entail:
 - an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

- However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

5.2 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:-

- i) Subject to the provision of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulation, 2015, no insider shall either on his behalf or on behalf of any other person, trade in securities of BSL on any stock exchange when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.
- ii) The onus of establishing that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be on such connected person.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following;

- (i) The transaction is a off-market inter-se retransfer between the promoters who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade;
- (ii) In the case of non-individual insiders: –
 - (a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(iii) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan.

In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Board of Directors may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

5.3 Need to know

- i) Price sensitive information is to be handled on a need to know basis i.e. price sensitive information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duties and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- ii) All non-published published information directly received by an employee should immediately be reported to the head of department.

5.4 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing the confidential information shall be kept secured. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.

6. Trading Plans

6.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure, pursuant to which trade may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.2 Such Trading plan shall:-

- i) Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii) Not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii) Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv) Not entail overlap for any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v) Set out either the value of trades to be affected or number of securities to be traded along with the nature of trade and the intervals at, dates on which such trades shall be affected, and
- vi) Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

- 6.3 The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express understanding as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- 6.4 The trading plans once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of the implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement is to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid violation. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7. Trading Window
